JOE. WOOD, Esq.

"Tell Me Darling Why I Love You"

BALLAD.

WORDS BY BOB WATT

MUSIC BY
CHAS. E. LATSHAW

PUBLISHED BY CHAS. E. LATSHAW,
ST. LOUIS, MO.

TELL ME DARLING WHY I LOVE YOU

SONG & CHORUS.

Words by BOB WATT Music by CHARLES E. LATSHAW

Moderato
Introduction
mf Ped.
Voice
Can you tell me why I love you, Why I al-ways think of Other maidens gold have plen- -ty, Spark- -ling jewels, rich and Ma- -ny miles that I have tra- -velled, O- -ver land and o- ver Clar.
Viol.
Piano
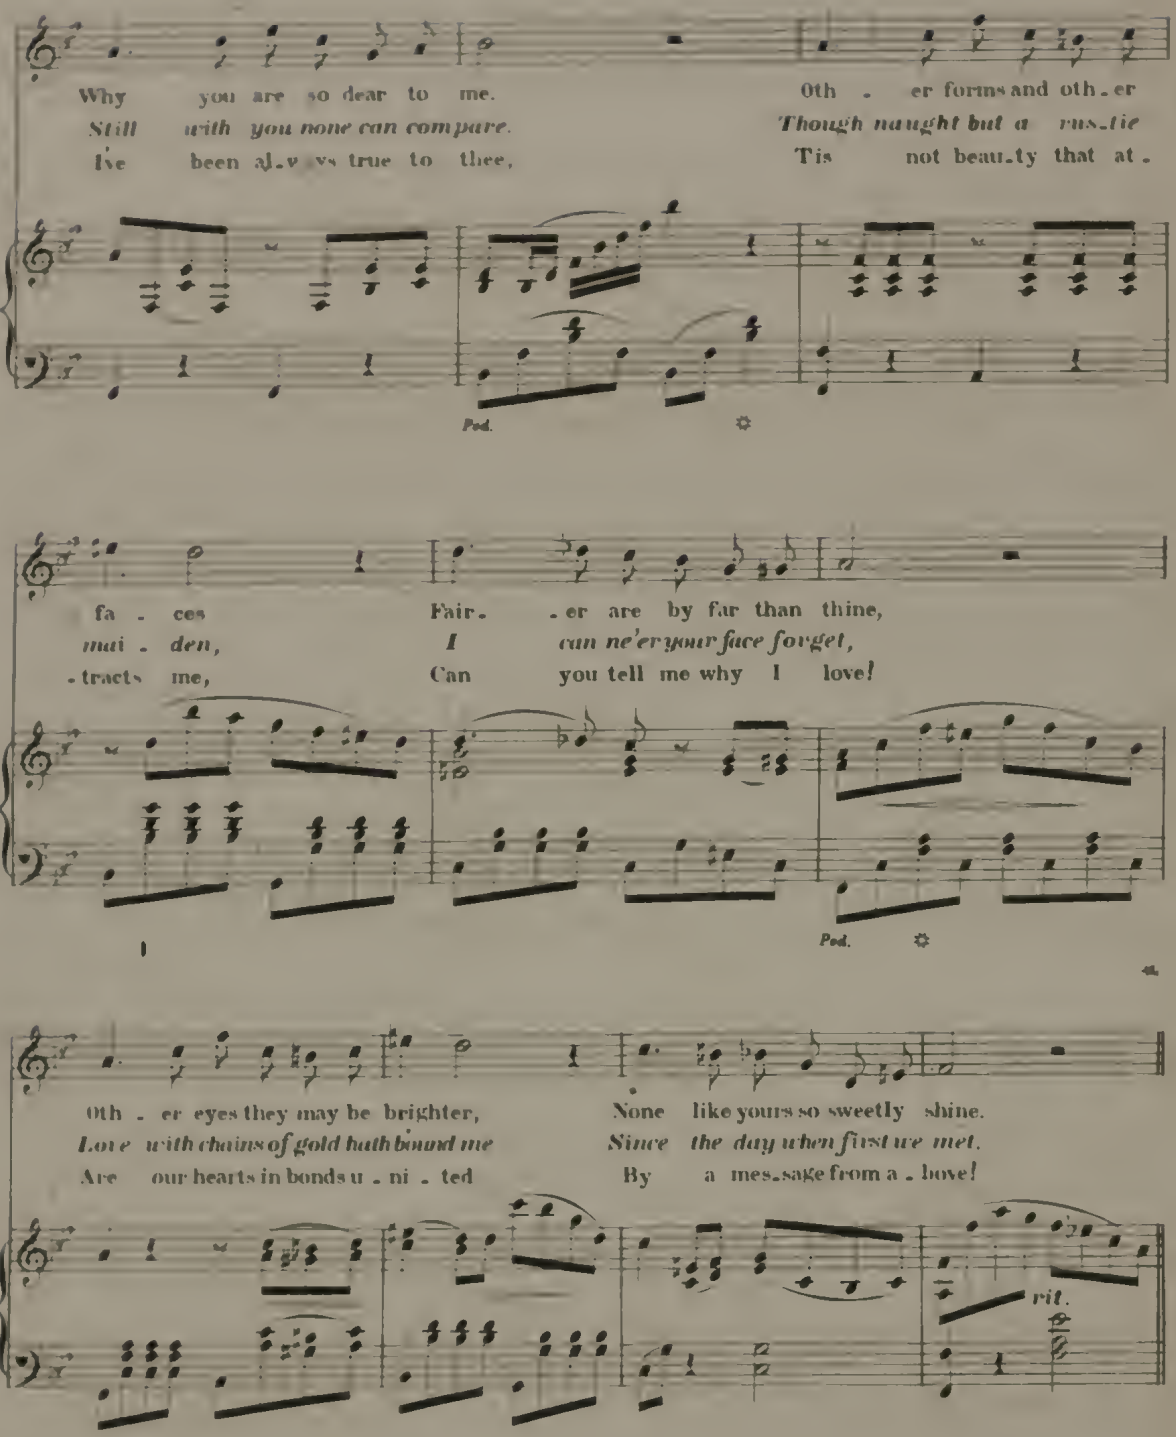
p thee! And what is it that at- tracts me rare, Talents beauty without meas- -ure, sea, Though I've met with ma- ny mai- -dens,
Ped.

Copyright, 1884 Charles E. Latshaw



Why you are so dear to me.
Still with you none can compare.
I've been al_ways true to thee,
Oth_er forms and oth_er
Though naught but a rus_tic
Tis not beau_ty that at_ Ped.
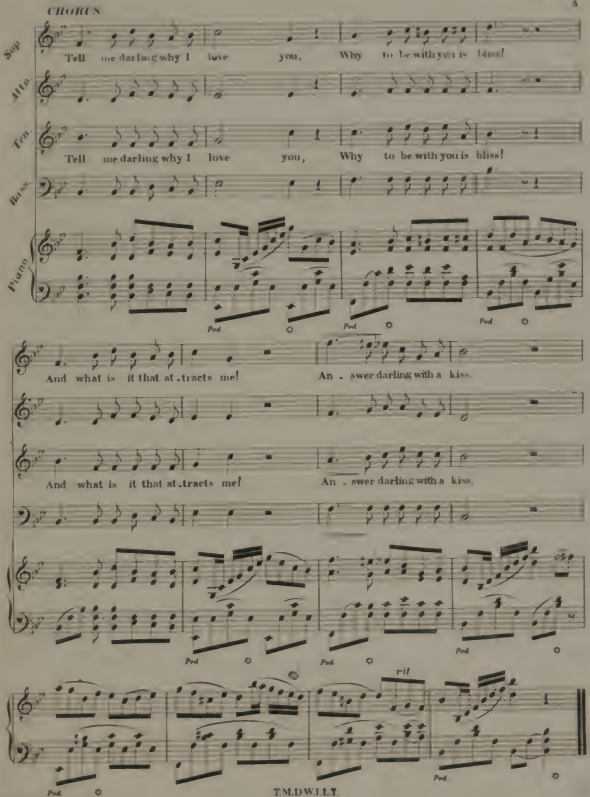
fa_ces
mai_den,
_tracts me,
Fair_er are by far than thine,
I can ne'er your face forget,
Can you tell me why I love!
Ped.
Oth_er eyes they may be brighter,
Love with chains of gold hath bound me
Are our hearts in bonds u_ni_ted
None like yours so sweetly shine.
Since the day when first we met,
By a mes_sage from a_bove!
rit.



CHORUS
Sop
Alto
Ten
Bass
Piano
Tell me darling why I love you, Why to be with you is bliss!
Tell me darling why I love you, Why to be with you is bliss!
Ped.
And what is it that at.tracts me! An - swer darling with a kiss.
And what is it that at.tracts me! An - swer darling with a kiss.
Ped.
rit
Ped.
T.M.D.W.I.L.Y.